Food Donations for animals by Nilaro Hotel

Strays deserve our kindness

I am writing this to express my disappointment with the article, 'Gone to the Dogs' (IE, July 27). The Supreme Court in Animal Welfare Board of India vs. A. Nagaraj & Ors. (2014) underscored that animals have a right to life and the word "life" is to be given an expanded meaning, which includes all forms of life, including animal life. "Life" means more than mere survival or existence of an animal's instrumental value to human beings – it is about dignity. One of the five internationally recognised freedoms for animals includes "freedom from hunger, thirst and malnutrition". This is recognised in the country's statute books: Sections 3 and 11 of The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act, 1960, draws from the Constitution's Article 51A(g), which says it is the fundamental duty of every citizen "to have compassion for living creatures", which means concern for suffering, sympathy, kindness, etc... .
